They also located in the cellar 125 gallons of wine which S. Rupiano testified he had made for his own use. Asked by the court why he wanted that amount he answered that it was a year's supply made while grapes were on the market and that he consumed a quart of wine at each meal habitually.

He also testified that his brother, who resided with him, had nothing to do with the making of the wine.

The police are still engaged in tracing the theft of the grapes from the boxear, but as yet have found no clue as to who stole them.

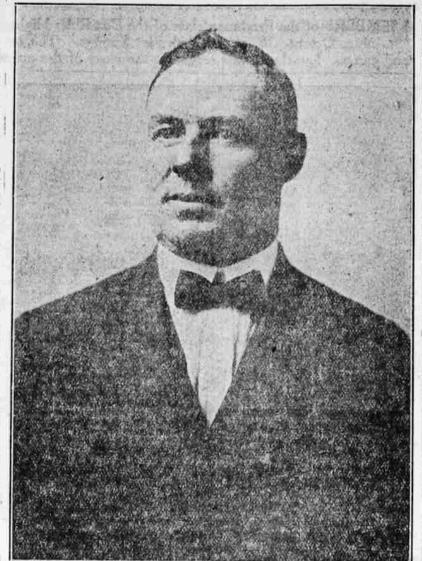

Ogden Citizens Will Observe Armistice Day

Citizens of Ogden are urged to join general observance of Armistice in general observance of Armistice day, November II, by Mayor Frank Francis, who said yesterday that although merchants and business men though merchants and business men have not been asked to close their places of business, tribute should be paid the soldier and sailor dead and devout thanks should be offere for the allied victory.

Observance of the day is asked in schools and in churches.

NEW TRIAL ORDERED FOR IDAHO BANKER

BOISE, Idaho, Nov. 4.—After spending several months in the Idaho state penitentiary, George H. Waterman, Idaho banker convicted last spring of making a false report to the state commissioner of finance, probably will be released as a result of the reversal Friday by the supreme court of the decision sending him to the penitentiary. The supreme court order sends the case back to the district court for a new trial and state legal officials believe that he will be turned over to the custody will be turned over to the custody of the sheriff of the county from which he was sentenced and released under bail.

Waterman was president of the State Bank of Kamiah in Lewis county at the time J. G. Fralick, state commissioner of finance, issued a call upon all state banks for a report showing their condition at the close of business May 4, 1920. Waterman submitted his report May 14 of that year and it is this report which is alleged he knowingly made false for the purpose of concealing the real condition of the bank, which later
